Effective Leadership and Management of PSHE

A must for all leaders of PSHE, this course enables participants to navigate and explore key issues around effective subject co-ordination including giving consideration to their RSE provision. Participants will consider the importance of subject leadership and management, the 'PSHE' ethos, and the subject's links to a variety of issues including safeguarding, SMSC and British values. The day will assist PSHE Leaders in developing a co-ordinated, effective and comprehensive approach to PSHE ensuring that essential elements such as monitoring and assessment are well considered.

A great place to find out about resources and supportive materials, and to network with other leaders of PSHE.

Primary & Special Schools - Online Safety Workshop & CEOP training

The Online Safety Workshop provides Online Safety Leads and DSLs with a variety of informative sessions to help them review their school policies, practice and curriculum to ensure they are relevant and up-to-date.

There will be an optional CEOP training session following the workshop for those who wish to participate. Teachers who would like to take up this CEOP training opportunity will need to bring along photo I.D. and a copy of their latest DBS form, or a signed, headed letter from their school confirming that the school has undertaken necessary risk assessments to ensure that the delegate is suitable to work with children and young people. The training is certified and participants will receive a certificate.

Annual Employee Health and Wellbeing Conference (*EARLY BIRD: £160+VAT valid until 25 Jan)

Organisational success rests on the essential bedrock of a committed and engaged workforce which ultimately makes school life a better experience for both children and staff. Schools and colleges are all at different stage in the journey when it comes to embedding wellbeing into everyday working life.

This fourth annual one day conference focusses on workplace wellbeing providing practical guidance on how to embed health and wellbeing within your school. Delegates will have the opportunity to explore strategic and operational approaches to building a healthy workplace in key areas such as stress management, mental health and resilience.

By raising awareness of the critical importance of employee wellbeing as a key priority, this conference aims to encourage employers to take a preventative approach to both build and sustain a healthy workplace.

Early bird price: £160+VAT. Valid until 25th January 2019.
